

VA Vet Center

The Vet Centers are known for their quality readjustment counseling services provided in a caring manner to assist you and your family toward a successful post-war adjustment in or near your respective communities. The Vet Center also offers bereavement counseling.

Vet Centers serve you and your family by providing a variety of quality care that includes professional readjustment counseling, community education, outreach to special populations, and the brokering of services with community agencies. It also provides a key access link between the veteran and other services in the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

There are very specific eligibility requirements to receive service from a Vet Center. You should either visit the Vet Center, or look on-line at the website. it is: www.va.gov/rcs.
